Docentric Advanced Reporting for Dynamics 365 for Finance and Operations will optimize your invoices, orders, checks and barcode labels

DYNAMICS 365 PARTNER PROFILE: DOCENTRIC

Docentric is specialized in reporting and document automation Add-Ons for Microsoft technologies including .NET and Dynamics 365 for Finance and Operations. Our products use the most popular document editor in the world, Microsoft Word, as the report designer, enabling end-users to finally design reports they need with the tool they know and love.

WHAT WE OFFER

Empower yourself to design nice and modern reports using familiar and powerful MS Word. Use all Word's awesome features such as tables, bullets, images, styles and layout options. Automate not only your invoices and orders but also contracts, HR documents, product data sheets and labels with 1D/2D barcodes.

Customize reports ten times faster and lower your costs significantly. Update report designs in production, right from within your Dynamics 365 for Finance and Operations. Use multiple designs for the same report without coding. Have a superior support for multilingual reports and add new translations on-the-fly.

Greatly improved report emailing, printing and archiving. Use a superior HTML editor to design emails and placeholders to set up dynamic email subjects, output filenames, target folders, etc. Save reports to Azure storage, SharePoint or Attachments. Use a much better report viewer that also works in on-premises environments.

Fully Integrated with Dynamics 365 for Finance and Operations. Lightweight, without external services. Implemented using extensions only. Reuses the built-in reports' data, security, workflows and buttons. Provides 100% replicas of the most common built-in reports such as Invoice and Purchase Order.

WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS ARE SAYING

"Docentric gave us the flexibility and efficiency we needed when customizing reports in our projects as well as the excellent technical support." – Richard Krol, ERP Support Specialist, RPM International Inc.
